AGED WOMAN KILLED BY TRAIN NEAR ROCHESTER

Meets Death Near Where She Spent Entire Life—Probe Mysterious Death.

ROCHESTER, Ind., Oct. 22.—Blinded by a sun bonnet she wore, and unable to hear because of deafness, Mrs. Fred Graeber, 68 years old, this morning was struck and killed by an east-bound Erie passenger train due here at 8 o'clock. The accident happened at the Lake Erie crossing, near where the aged woman had lived during her entire life. She stepped on to the track when the train was but a short distance away and the engineer had no chance to stop his train. She leaves an aged husband and four sons.

Lee Shields, whose death under a train at Plainfield, Ind., Saturday, is being investigated by the coroner of Marion county because of the finding of three knife wounds on the body, was long a resident of this city and was regarded as a "man of mystery". His twin sister died last spring and another sister, Miss Fannie Shields, of Akron, near here, is now in Indianapolis. Murder is suspected.

Mrs. Rebecca Henry, 87 years old, one of the pioneers of the county, is dead near here.

Congressman H. A. Barnhart of this city is expected to begin his speech-making tour of the thirteenth district in North Judson Friday night, providing he can leave Washington. His campaign will be of the whirlwind type.

FIRST VOTER

Think carefully what and who you should cast your first vote for. How proud you are and of right you should be when you cast your first ballot; but be sure that it will speak to your government in such a way that you will be proud of that act in after life. The writer was raised a democrat. The democratic party stood for the continuation of slavery and the young republican party stood against slavery. I forsook my early teachings and prejudices and cast my first ballot for Abraham Lincoln. Proud of it then, still prouder of it now.

A greater question than African slavery is up before us today for settlement; the prohibition of the liquor traffic.

Ex-Prime Minister of England Gladstone said "the traffic was more destructive than war, famine and pestilence combined."

The PROHIBITION PARTY is uncompromisingly for its destruction and invites you to be in at its death. Nov. 3 pull down the lever on the "Rising Sun." That act will be one of your greatest pleasures in after life. We are bound to win.
